NARRATIVE:

Perez, a documented King Kobras gang member, has an extensive criminal history that began at the age of 23. He has been convicted of attempted carjacking, attempted robbery, battery, assault w/a deadly weapon, battery on spouse, several violations of court orders to prevent abuse, forgery, several possession of controlled substance, use of controlled substance, and fugitive from justice. Perez has served multiple state prison terms, the longest, a 42 month term for attempted carjacking. Perez was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on April 18th, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in December 2013 after Perez absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Perez qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of narcotic controlled substance falls under the guidelines for PRCS under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, gang affiliation, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
